OLD BOOK VALUED
AT $12,000Benjamin Franklin's Ledger
Missing Nearly Century, Found

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—Discovery of Benjamin Franklin's "old book" in a dusty attic in Mt. Kisco, N. Y., announced on the eve of the celebration today of "Poor Richard's birthday" throws interesting light on the early American's activities in both public and private life. For one thing it shows that Franklin printed 1,600 copies of his protest to the English king against the Stamp act.

The ledger, missing for nearly a century, contains accounts of Franklin's print shop when he was in partnership with David Hall, Scottish printer, and covers eight years ending in 1768. Collectors consider it an important find and its value is placed at $12,000. Scholars and collectors had been searching for the book for years.

Celebration of "Poor Richard's birthday" will be on a larger scale today than ever before. The Benjamin Franklin memorial committee announced that the celebration will be held at the City Hall under the auspices of the Sons of the American Revolution.

The course will open Tuesday and will continue until Friday. Classes will be held in the afternoon in the banquet room at the "Y" under the direction of Miss Jessie Booth, an expert on home economics. She will have personal supervision of all classes.

The course is free and all Lima housewives are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to receive instruction in modern methods from one of the foremost authorities.

Women who attend will be served samples of food prepared in class and coffee will be served every afternoon at the close of the lectures. Those attending should bring pencils and pads for taking notes.

LEGISLATURE MAY BE CALLEDSpecial Session Requested by Ohio City Attorneys

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Governor A. V. Donahue has been requested to call a special session of the Ohio general assembly for the purpose of enacting emergency legislation for the relief of Ohio municipalities which are stricken with poverty as a result of the defeat of the Taft and Albaugh laws at the referendum held last November.

The request came from F. M. Dotson, Toledo's law director, and head of the City Attorneys' Association of Ohio which met here several weeks ago to discuss the plight in which several Ohio cities find themselves as a result of the snowing under of the taxation measures which were to provide them revenue for operating expenses during 1924. The city attorneys are again in conference in connection with the present convention of the Ohio Tax Association and are assembling plans for the proposed legislation which they hope to have enacted by the general assembly.

MEASURES DRAWN—Two measures are under consideration by the city attorneys. One guarantees to cities the 5 mills for operating revenues if not in conflict with sinking fund requirements and within the 10 and 15 mill limitations under existing laws. The other sinking fund requirements do not permit of such large levy for operating expenses, an additional levy of two mills for operating expenses and two mills for sinking fund requirements can be voted by the people by majority vote, the additional levy to run for a period of four years.

The companion measure gives city councils the right to issue bonds up to a half-million dollars and to place sinking fund requirements on such issues outside of present limitations. Toledo and Youngstown are the two principal cities behind the movement to have the special legislation enacted with Cincinnati in strong support in an effort to get relief from certain existing laws which that city has been forced to make to keep the head of the city government above water. A number of smaller municipalities are also faced with poverty in the same cause.

MOHLER IS GUARDED TO PREVENT SUICIDE

Woman Left Off Jury For Her Swearing

PORTLAND, Ore.—(Associated Press)—Mrs. Louis Palmer Weber, prominent society and club woman of Portland, was excused yesterday from the January jury panel, "because she swore profusely in the circuit court room," according to attaches of the court and Mrs. Weber's own admission.

"I make no denial that I swore," Mrs. Weber said after a conference with Judge Tazewell and the other jurors. "I swore like a pirate and there was justification for it. If the men of the jury are permitted to smoke the cheapest cigars they can buy until the air is blue and to spit all over the place, I think there was nothing wrong in my swearing. I don't know any law against it. I asked the judge if he did and he said he did not."

GASOLINE TAX FOR ROADS URGED

Ohio's Highway History Declared
Criminal at Meeting

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Good roads exponents had their innings before the Ohio Tax Association here today, advocating among other things larger appropriations for the upkeep of existing hard surfaced roads and the enactment of a gasoline tax to furnish highway funds.

Continuation of state road building unless a sufficient reconstruction fund is provided was described as "insane economy" by C. A. Pomeroy, legislative agent of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation. Ohio's past history in road building has been "criminal," he declared, adding that the state would have no hard surfaced roads in the future unless provision was made for their upkeep.

A gasoline tax, he said, would provide funds on an equitable basis and permit maintenance work to be done. Thirty-seven states have adopted such a tax which he said was just since the roads now serve motor vehicles in the main whereas they previously were of general benefit and should have been paid for from tax levies on general property.

Highway financing was described as "one of the biggest problems of taxation" by C. L. Van Voorhis, field engineer of the Ohio Good Roads Federation. He urged that more funds be set aside for upkeep.

"Throughout the industrial world, public utilities and manufacturing concerns set aside from 10 to 15 per cent of their investment annually for upkeep purposes. Ohio with its vast investment in improved highways is appropriating less than three per cent annually," he said. Resolutions incorporating the beliefs of the association as to taxation remedies, were to be considered this afternoon before the close of the convention.

The association at the morning session passed a motion providing for the appointment of a committee of seven to make a study of possible administrative economies and to report back to the association at its next annual conference.

SQUARE DEAL ASKED FOR MABEL BY CLUB WOMEN

CHICAGO—Chicago club women are on record for a square deal for Mabel Normand, movie actress and witness in the shooting of Courland Blass. They have decided it is "high time for women to stick together."

At a meeting of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs last night a resolution urging the affiliated clubs to ban Mabel's pictures threw the session into heated arguments.

Finally the question was put to a vote and a large majority voted to have the resolution tabled until Miss Normand's story is told in court.

DEADLINE IS SET ON MABEL AND EDNA FILMS

COLUMBUS—Motion pictures in which Edna Purviance and Mabel Normand appear which have been contracted for by Ohio theatre owners, may be shown until February 8, thereafter they will be barred.

MANY SHIPS IN DISTRESS OFF COAST

New York City and Vicinity Hit by Severe Gale

5 PERSONS MISSING AT SEA

Heavy Snow Causes Death of Three at Chicago

SAN FRANCISCO—(Associated Press)—The steamer Silverado, which sailed from here Jan. 13, in ballast and carrying merchandise, is afire five miles from Willapa Harbor, off the Southwestern Washington coast, according to distress calls from the vessel received here early this morning. The vessel is of 1,359 net tons.

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—One of the most severe January wind and rain storms that has struck New York city and vicinity in years, had subsided today after causing indirectly five deaths, considerable property loss and damage to small shipping in the harbor and along the New Jersey coast.

Two unidentified vessels were reported in distress. Four men and a woman were missing after the sinking of a barge off Longbranch, N. J.

The deaths were due to traffic accidents. More than a score of pedestrians were slightly hurt. Damage estimated at thousands of dollars was caused by the smashing of plate glass windows and electric signs. The wind reached a velocity of seventy miles an hour. Many trees were uprooted.

The liner Henry B. Mallory, pitching in heavy seas, early today succeeded in taking off the officers and crew, twenty men in all, of the Danish freighter Normania, disabled off the coast.

THREE DEAD IN CHICAGO—Three persons were killed by street cars here in a blinding snowstorm that accompanied the second extreme cold wave of the season in the middle west. The mercury stood at five below zero early today in Chicago, while in regions untempered by the great lakes temperatures of ten to 20 below were reported.

Practically every train in the blizzard area was running behind schedule. Snow and sleet covered the tracks.

George S. Castle, 40, John Green, 70, and Mallick Houghton, 28, were killed in different parts of Chicago when they walked directly in the path of street cars in each case the victim was blinded by heavy snow.

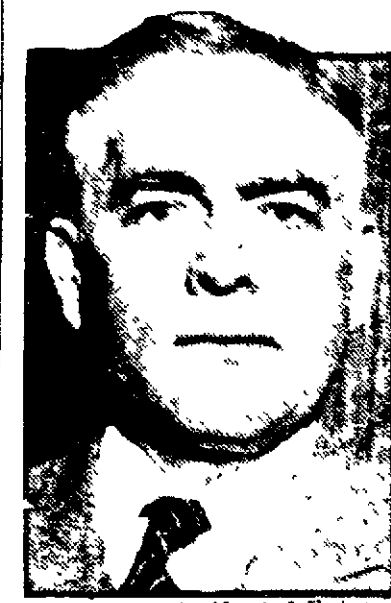

GALVESTON, Tex.—(Associated Press)—While the U. S. S. Pensacola was enroute to aid the U. S. S. cruiser Tacoma aground and in distress on the Blanquilla reef, 16 miles from Vera Cruz, Mexico, heavy seas were preventing a tug from drawing alongside the cruiser, according to a naval wireless message received here last night. Except for the tug was standing by, details as to the situation of the Tacoma were lacking early today. Wireless messages received yesterday said the Tacoma was sending out distress calls and had appealed to the American consulate in Vera Cruz for two tugs and unless the tugs arrived within two hours according to an intercepted message timed 6:30 a. m. it might be too late to drag the warship off the reef.

The Tacoma has been patrolling the Gulf coast since the outbreak of the Mexican revolution.

CRUISER FILOODED

WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—The United States cruiser Tacoma aground on Blanquilla reef, off Vera Cruz, has three compartments flooded, according to wireless reports from the ship received today at the navy department.

UNION APPROVAL CLAUSE LOSES

Voted Down by Miners at Columbus Meeting

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Ohio miners at their annual convention today defeated a resolution which had it passed, would have sought to prevent operators from employing miners unless they were approved by the local unions. The resolution asked to have a clause written into union contracts specifying that "no man be employed without the approval of the local union."

Debate preceding this issue was the most heated of the gathering. It was pointed out that such a movement would have met with the bitterest kind of opposition from the operators.

Other resolutions adopted included declaration of opposition to I. W. O. activities and a demand that Ohio congressmen and Senators Fess and Willis attempt to secure exemption from taxation of the money spent by miners for transportation to and from their work.

Establishment of a method to create a fund to provide for miners physically unfit to do manual labor was provided in another resolution.

The wage scale committee is to make its report sometime this afternoon.

80 REBELS KILLED

Lose Heavily in Clash With Mexican Federals

MEXICO CITY—(By Radio Via Fort Worth Star-Telegram)—(Associated Press)—The war department will neither confirm nor deny reports that the De la Huerta revolutionists have obtained control of the oil wells and pipe lines in the rich Cuero Azul district in Vera Cruz and nearby producing centers. The department announced, however, that the commanders of federal forces operating south from Tampico in the oil field districts have not submitted reports in the last few days.

According to information had from rebel prisoners, the revolutionists lost eighty killed in an attack upon Cuero Azul Monday afternoon.

No outstanding moves or operations were reported in the last 24 hours from either the Jalisco or Vera Cruz fronts.

Alberto Paul, secretary of the treasury, asked regarding the reported negotiations between a group of United States bankers and the Oregon government as to a loan involving $25,000,000 said that "the government has several financial projects under consideration but a yet nothing definite has been decided upon and I am unable to discuss the matter."

WOMAN SOUGHT IN DEATH PLOT

Youngstown Resident Accused of Poisoning Cleveland Man

WIDOW OF VICTIM IS HELD

Pair Charged With Conspiring to Get Insurance

CLEVELAND—(Associated Press)—Police dragnets of Cleveland and Youngstown were spread today for Mrs. Emma Colavito, accused of complicity in the murder of Dan Kaber, wealthy Lakewood publisher three years ago, and now being sought on a new murder warrant, charging the poisoning of Marino Costanzo nearly four years ago, that she might share with his wife his $2,000 life insurance.

While Youngstown police were guarding the home of Mrs. Colavito in that city and Cleveland detectives were detailed to watch her mother's home here, Cuyahoga-co authorities were preparing to exhume the body of Costanzo in the belief that an analysis of the vital organs will show death was due to metallic poisoning.

WIDOW HELD—Mrs. Faunio Costanzo, 32, widow of the dead man, is held without bail, charged with complicity in the alleged poison plot that is believed to have resulted in Costanzo's death in the hands of police. In this case she is claimed to have admitted knowledge that her husband was being given poison by Mrs. Colavito. The statement also tells of $200 of the $2,000 life insurance money being paid over to Mrs. Colavito by Mrs. Costanzo.

According to police, Mrs. Costanzo hired Mrs. Colavito who had been introduced to her as a nurse, to poison her husband because her married life had been unhappy and in order to get his life insurance.

Mrs. Costanzo told police she did not realize her husband was being poisoned until a few days before his death. She said she was "completely under the domination" of Mrs. Colavito and thought her husband was being given medicine to stop his drinking.

MAN ARRESTED—(Associated Press)—Police here today were without any clue to the whereabouts of Mrs. Emma Colavito wanted in Cleveland on a poisoning charge, except the statement of Salvatore Lacadavore at whose house she lived that she had gone to Cleveland some time ago.

Interests found nobody at home when this was noted. Lacadavore's house late yesterday. Later the man arrived and was arrested on an open charge of suspicion. He will be questioned further today. An all-night visit at the Lacadavore house brought no result. None of Mrs. Colavito's personal effects were found at the house.

GREENVILLE, Tex.—The body of Charles Hackenschmidt, former professional wrestler, who was killed by another man here last week, is unclaimed in a local morgue. George Hackenschmidt, brother of Charles, and former world's championship claimant, is reported to be in Europe.

Gravity of Situation Begins to Bear Upon Confessed Slayer

CONFESSION IS RECALLED

Jury is Picked to Pass on Sanity of Aged Axe Murderer

Fear that William Mohler, 78, self confessed murderer of Mrs. Katherine Mohler, may attempt to cheat the law by taking his own life, was expressed by Eugene T. Lippincott, prosecuting attorney, Thursday.

"A man in the condition of mind Mohler is in," he declared, "is liable to attempt anything. He must be watched every moment."

TREATED KINDLY

"When I am with him, I speak to him kindly, just as I would to a child. You cannot get rough with an old man like he is. He thinks I am a great fellow," continued Lippincott, "but just the same, if he could lay his hands on a butcher knife or axe there is no telling what he might do. There is no need of taking chances."

Mohler has become more and more melancholy as the consequences of his crime have slowly seeped into his disordered brain.

He is beginning to become more or less aware, Sheriff Crosson said Thursday that some sort of punishment will be meted out to him for the murder.

SUICIDE FEARED

It is feared that when he learns of the meaning of the grand jury action, he may try to kill himself.

In his confession Mohler in touching on the attempt to send him to a state hospital following the barn fires declared he would rather be dead than go there.

"They wanted to put me in the asylum here in town," the confession reads, "that is what they were trying to do. Oh, I was wild sometimes, I just thought maybe they meant that for my life. I would rather be dead."

Orders were given at the fall Thursday, it was learned, to have other prisoners confined there keep an eye on the old man and frustrate any attempt to make away with himself.

He must not be left alone, the inmates were instructed, and if he comes to act strangely, they were told to notify Sheriff Crosson without delay.

PRISONER WATCHED—Mohler must be watched," Roy C. Bowersock, county detective admitted Thursday. "The old fellow is liable to start something. I would not be a bit surprised if he tried to hang himself or cut his throat if he gets his hands on a knife."

Mohler's condition is gradually growing worse according to Dr. Lippincott who sounded his mental alarm.

The delusions have been growing stronger year by year and will in the future develop into a more pronounced mania, the alienist declared.

Mohler's hallucination which made enemies of his neighbors and family, still with him. Just as he felt that he was being persecuted, his wife must be put out of the way, he still feels.

WID BELIEVED—It was better on the farm after she was gone, he told officers. She was not there to quarrel with him. There is little doubt, authorities say that with her out of the way, Mohler might have plotted to rid himself of those whom he thought were against him.

Fate of William Mohler, 78, slayer of Katherine Mohler, 68, his wife, will rest in the hands of a common pleas jury before which he will be tried on Jan. 23, to determine his sanity.

Jury who will sit in the William Mohler sanity hearing in common pleas court are being served Thursday morning. They are as follows:

JURORS NAMED—Noah Matter, Bluffton; Charles L. Summers, Lima; Lela Bader, Lima; Clarence Heller, Lima; Ruth Morris, Sugar Creek; Henry Donson, Lima; William R. Gibson, Lima; Mart G. Frank, Lima; and Jesse Fisher, Montrose.

Should attorneys be needed they will probably be drawn from the regular jury panel, it was said.

Mohler was declared to be insane by the grand jury which lifted the evidence in the murder case Wednesday afternoon.

The verdict of the jury expressing belief that the aged farmer was insane cleared the way for a trial before a special jury. A call for the jury was issued Thursday.

If the special jury concurs with

Leipzig School Officials Hit by Examiner's Report

(BY CARL D. GROUT)
BERLIN—(United Press)—Wine,
women and song come high in Munich—higher, in fact, than almost anywhere in the world.

Indeed, it's forbidden by Dictator Kahr to have any wine, women and song, unless perchance it be a modest bottle of Rhine or Moselle, a quiet little lady, such, for example, as one's own wife, and a song such as the harmless "Deutschland Ueber Alles."

Kahr has set his police on the trail of those who feel constrained to spend their money in the pursuit of happiness via the champagne and flapper route. The special police group is known as the "gay life squad."

The native Munich, of course, knows where to go and what to do to avoid a "party," without police interference. But now and then an unsophisticated person from the provinces, let us say from London, arrives in the pleasant southern metropolis. This person would be glad to pass a few hours in the company of some Munich maid, whose speed limit is somewhere around 60 per hour.

He will find a whole party of wealthy people in these days that they appear with money and time to burn, make the acquaintance of a couple of gay Munich maids, and start off.

The party was a great success—sort of a cross between a flood and an earthquake. The bill was 700 gold marks—a tidy little sum as such parties go around here.

Then the "gay life squad" stepped in and spoiled the whole show.

The little dance girls almost failed to appear at their cabaret the following evening, as the jails don't let out so early in Munich. And, the sugar daddies—"three thousand gold marks," said the stern old judge.

The gay old dogs from Berlin had plenty of money, but not fluid cash.

Checks didn't go.

The next day the wife of one of the party appeared in court with 3,000 gold marks to get hubby and his pals out.

Radio Valuable In Treatment Of Tuberculosis

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — (Associated Press) — Radio is a valuable adjunct to the treatment for tuberculosis and is of real therapeutic value in treatment of other hospital cases, Dr. Walter K. Foley, chief of the medical service of the United States Veterans' Bureau hospital number 68, here declared today. He revealed that more than 25 radio sets are being used in the hospital and that when a patient enters he is given the option of receiving a set as part of his hospital equipment.

A radio set will do more to cure tuberculosis than any other apparatus yet devised," said Dr. Foley.
"The boys forgot their troubles with radio. A worried, unsettled state of mind is the biggest obstacle we have to fight in treatment of tuberculosis."

"I would rather give a patient suffering from tuberculosis and other diseases as well, a radio set than a whole handful of pills. It does him more good."

FREE STATE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS STAYS

DUBLIN — A recent attempt in the dail to abolish the Free State ministry of external affairs and place the duties upon the president was defeated by a large majority.
President Cosgrave declined to undertake the work and justified the existence of the ministry, which cost $300,000 a year.

The Freeman's Journal, supporting the decision on the ground that Ireland has important individual foreign interests said:

"For example, Washington at present seems to be settling the quota of immigrants from the territories that were lately the United Kingdom without reference to the Free State. Washington may make a similar mistake with regard to tariffs."

WORK ON SCHOOL ENJOINED

Contractor Gets Court Order. Says Award is Fraud

SOUTH HIGH PROJECT HIT
Part of Job Not Included in Winning Bid, is Claim

Injunction proceedings Thursday halted work of beautifying the interior walls of the South High school addition.

A U. S. district of Holm & Schenck, Lima contractor, procured in common plea court the restraining order that halted the work.

The injunction temporarily restrains the work of the school board, and the board is now waiting for a contract for the work awarded on Dec. 11.

The court said that award of the contract to Schenck is a fraud, upon the taxpayer of the city are hurried by the plaintiff.

Schenck had submitted Oct. 16, a bid to have a contract for beautifying the interior walls of the school addition. His bid was $2,000. The bid was accepted, while the plaintiff declares his firm had $2,000 including a scaffolding estimated to be worth $200.

NO PRICE MADE
It also is charged that on alternate bids, no price was made, and the defendant could charge the board what price he chose for the work. Neither is the bid accepted the lowest or best, as required by law.

Schenck also charges that award of the contract was delayed from Dec. 14, when bids were taken on, to the 14th, throwing the award into jeopardy.

Hunt was also thrown out by Schenck, that political motives may have been involved in delaying the award. It is also charged there is reason to believe no bid check was furnished by the defendant.

Members of the board are Dr. R. Judkins, L. E. May, Ralph Austin and J. H. Hughes. Judkins, Judkins and May had not commenced serving on the board at the time the contract now under fire, was entered into.

FOR FATHER'S COUGH
January is usually one of the coldest months, and brings its share of coughs, colds and hoarseness. Take FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND at the first sign of a cough or cold, as it loosens the phlegm and quickly brings relief to the inflamed membranes of the throat. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND has done wonders for my father, who had an awful cough. He is feeling fine now." writes Nicholas Gonzalez, Cuero, Texas.

NATIONAL THRIFT WEEK OPENS

Lima Organizations Active in Fostering Movement

Observance of national thrift week opened Thursday in Lima with a movement in banks, building and loan associations, industries and business establishments, in general to further the creed of economy advocated by Benjamin Franklin.

While the movement is sponsored by the national executive committee of the Y. M. C. A., the week's observance here in reality is being conducted by the local branch of the Ohio Building & Loan association with John W. Roby acting as chairman.

At Y. M. C. A. headquarters literature telling of the ideals and accomplishments of the movement is available and considerable has been distributed as arranged in the tentative plans of the national organization when that body again adopted the sponsoring of Thrift Week.

Message of thrift week has been spread by the Lima organization of the Ohio Building & Loan association by a city-wide campaign advocating a city of home-owning families, feeling of optimism pervades and indications point toward a period of home building prosperity during 1924.

Special thrift exercises were outlined for Lima schools on Thursday — Benjamin Franklin's birthday and the inaugural of the thrift movement.

Pastors are co-operating with the movement and will spread the word in their Sunday sermons while school children are being urged upon by their teachers to carry the messages to their homes.

Saturday is designated as "pay your bills day" and upon this day a general payment of outstanding bills on books of local merchants is expected. Housewives are especially urged to foster the thrift movement by savings on foodstuffs and other household necessities.

FINE ROAD AND NEW CAR PLAY TRICKS ON DRIVER

DELPHOS — Purring motor, plenty of speed, and a steady streak of perfectly good highway ahead of them, proved to be the undoing of Ted Wilcox, 427 N. Washington, when he was rushing east on Harding highway, about two miles out of this city, about 3:30 p. m. Wednesday.

The car, which was very new, exuded from the highway, jumped a ditch, turned one handspike in the air, landing on its side, the all the while the motor purring on.

A garage man was called to the scene. The car was righted, but no one was found therein. The occupants, Wilcox, and it is said, a lady, had gone, having been brought to town in an accompanying Ford.

Dr. Hartman of this city arrived on the scene too late, but it is said the car was brought to the road only thru his skill in directing the work. Wilcox suffered a slight cut on the hand.

The car will need a new top, new hood, windshield, radiator shell, lights, bumper, and four new fenders. With the exception of that the machine runs well and in good condition, new wheels on the second floor of the Maeder hospital in a state of consciousness.

EXPENSE TO BE CERTIFIED
OTTAWA — Judge J. M. Summers has ordered that the amount of $1,200 for expense which will be incurred in defending an action for partition, filed in the case of David H. Payne, be certified to common pleas court for such use. George H. Payne is executor of the estate. The amount of $1,200 was allowed in addition to the $1,000.

GAMBLING HIT
CONTINENTAL — The ordinance concerning the playing of cards in billiard rooms, but with elimination of all gambling, has been amended to permit of operation until 11 p. m. on Saturdays only. This new ordinance became effective with Mayor Welch's desire to clamp down the "bid" in Continental soon after beginning of the new year.

FARMERS URGED TO ENTER EXHIBITS IN STATE SHOW

OTTAWA — Putnam-co farmers in large numbers, with the best of their 1923 products, will be entered in the state grain and corn show to be held Feb. 4 to Feb. 8, in Columbus. Premium lists and entrance qualifications may be obtained at the farm bureau office.

"We have just as good corn and grain this year as ever was raised anywhere in the state," front and wind damage has been no worse here than elsewhere," J. W. Henceroth, Putnam-co farm agent, said.

"I am urging every Putnam-co farmer to enter and see how it feels to be in on the premium money. We can put on a creditable show if we get to work and bring out the best from all over the county. It pays to advertise, and there is no better form of advertisement for rural communities than to enter high-class stuff, such as is raised right here in Putnam-co, at a big show like the state corn and grain meeting will be," said Henceroth.

Many Putnam-co farmers and their families will attend the show.

HARD BATTLE IN AIR AGAINST DEATH IS WON

DIRIGIBLE SWEEP IN STORM

Shenandoah, Pride of U. S. Navy,
Twisted from Mooring

CREW OF 22 MEN ABOARD

Elements Conquered and Crash up Coast is Averted

LAKEHURST, N. J. — (Associated Press) — The Shenandoah, largest dirigible in the world, poked her nose into her hangar at the naval air station at 4:24 o'clock this morning after completing the most remarkable flight a ship of her type ever made. The flight was a fight against the most stubborn element of nature, a wind that blew at 12 miles an hour at times. This gale twisted the giant craft from her mooring mast at 6:52 o'clock last night and swept her on a mad chase up the Atlantic coast to Staten Island, New York city, where Captain Anton Heinen, in command when she broke away, turned her nose into the teeth of the storm and maneuvered her back to her home port.

Not a man in her crew of 22 was injured, not a man was downhearted. Each of them declared it was the finest trip he ever made and each was loud in his praise of the ship's pride. They took it as a joke and won the envy of their mates who had watched them drift away into the darkness.

The ship herself lay in her hangar like a naughty school boy whose truancy had brought ill luck. Her nose was battered and she was somewhat scratched up. A hasty inspection showed that her front controls, or gas bags, had collapsed when she was torn away by the wind, the covering of her upper fin had been stripped off and wrapped around the rudder, making the craft exceedingly difficult to steer, while there was slight damage to her outer covering, the material being rent nearly up to her nose.

STRONGEST EVER MADE
Captain Heinen, who had seen the Shenandoah built and who had tried out more than 100 other air-craft on their maiden voyages, said after he had landed that without a doubt the navy craft was the strongest constructed ship of her type ever made.

"I do not believe any other ship in which I have flown would have successfully gone thru the gale she did last night," he said. "There is not a bit of doubt but what she will successfully complete her Polar region flight planned for next month. We will not likely experience such a terrific storm as was raging along the Atlantic coast yesterday. If we do, we can easily enough run around it."

"We had the ship under perfect control within five minutes after the nose cap was torn off. We rose 500 feet and continued flying at

DISASTERS MET BY DIRIGIBLES

Four giant dirigibles of the Shenandoah type have met disaster within the past three years.

January 1, 1921—R-34, which flew from East Fortuna, Scotland, across the Atlantic to New York, and returned safely, was wrecked in a gale at Howden, England.

August 24, 1921—Z. R-2 built in England for the United States burst into flames, exploded, and fell near Hull, England, with loss of 42 lives.

February 21, 1922—The U. S. army dirigible Roma exploded over Hampton Roads, 34 died of injuries.

December 21-22, 1923—French naval dirigible Dixmude struck by lightning and lost in Mediterranean storm, 50 lives lost.

that elevation until we reached the coast near Summit, N. J., when we went up to about 1,200 feet.

"The flying conditions were unfavorable as it was raining hard. However, when we reached New York, the weather cleared and we found we had reached the port side of the storm. We headed over Staten Island and thenceforth nosed the ship against a 25-mile wind and flew to Perth-Amboy. From there we drifted somewhat to a point over Keyport and then nosed the ship into the wind again until we reached Freehold. From there to Lakehurst we rode with the wind."

OFFICER PRAISED
Captain Heinen voiced enthusiastic praise for the work of Lieutenant Commander Mayer who acted as inspector officer while the ship was in the air. His duties called him to every part of the monster dirigible and he never faltered, altho he was forced to walk the narrow gangways while the ship careened and swayed with the wind.

Naval officers at the station were too busy to comment this morning, but all of them were visibly jubilant at the safe return of the Shenandoah. About the only worse thing that could have happened to her, one of them declared, would have been for her to have broken in half and come flying back in two pieces.

When the craft broke loose last night there was a furor of excitement at the station. She had been moored to the 165 foot mast which was built in the shape of the Eiffel tower in Paris and was undergoing a ten-day test of her actions in such a position in preparation for a flight to the North Pole. Eight minutes more she would have been fast to the mast exactly four days.

Captain F. R. McGray, commandant of the station, and Commander R. D. Weyerbacher, who designed her, had just come from aboard the ship, descent being made by way of the mast, and gone into their quarters for dinner. Suddenly there came a crash that boomed out over the whinnying of the wind and the sound of pouring rain. Officers and enlisted men rushed from barracks in various degrees of uniformity in time to see the Shenandoah lurch from side to side, then gradually ascend, sending down upon them a shower of fragments of her torn outrigger.

Help was impossible and all the awe-struck sailors and marines could do was watch the airplane drift into the storm. At that time the wind was blowing from the southeast at about 60 or 65 miles an hour. There was some consolation for those left behind in the fact that the gale would carry the craft inland instead of eastward to the sea.

There was a hurried rush to the top of the mast to determine if possible what damage had been done. There it was found that the metal nose cap, into which converged the craft's entire framework and been torn away and left dangling on the mast. Then came speculation as to whether the ship would be able to weather the storm with this hole in her prow.

The radio set on the Shenandoah had been out of working order during the day and no word came for an hour. Telephone and telegraph wires about Lakehurst had been blown down by the storm and officers could get no information as to the ship's whereabouts. Some were pessimistic, altho all were sure that if it was humanly possible, Capt. Heinen would bring the ship home.

Then after an hour's anxious waiting there came thru the air this message:

"Everything O. K. We will ride out the storm."

The message was signed by Commander Pierce who also was on board the runaway ship.

Hope was renewed and after a time other reassuring messages were received and when it was found the Shenandoah had won her battle over Staten Island the entire crew of the station, consisting of about 400 sailors and marines, were ordered on duty to await her landing. A sailor was perched at top the mast, another was stationed at a siren on a tower before the ship hove into view, a screeching whistle pierced the air, bringing every man to his post on the field ready to land the ship.

For a time it was not certain whether the Shenandoah would be taken into her hangar before noon, as it was feared ground winds might cause another mishap that might spell disaster. The storm had abated by this time, however, and the ship touched the ground at 3:20 o'clock this morning.

Working cautiously, the ground crew grasped the lines and dragged the Shenandoah slowly toward the hangar where awing doors awaited the truant. Captain Heinen and his crew remained on board until she was stowed safely away and he directed the work of hauling her to her berth.

He was in a jovial mood and as the searchlights that flooded the field played upon him a broad grin spread over his face.

"You sons of guns," he shouted from the control car, "you expected something to happen, didn't you?"

SUNNY SOUTH LURES BOY MISSING, HERE, IS BELIEF

Lured by stories of the sunny south, and by border hunting tales, Robert Hale, 14, son of Porter Hale, 407 E. Market-st., is believed to have gone to Kentucky with a chum.

His father told police that Robert had neither been seen nor heard from since he left for school at 8 a. m. Wednesday. The youth wore short corduroy trousers, a sweater, mackinaw coat and a blue cap. He has brown hair, blue eyes, and weighs about 70 pounds.

Says Phosphate Is What Thin Nervous People Need.

The organic phosphate discovered by P. L. Hou, the French scientist which is known to druggists in this country as Lito-Phosphate, and which is safe to take as well as the phosphate, is now being highly recommended by many physicians as a real strength builder and for nervousness and general run-down conditions. Scores of people all over the country have been benefited by this remedy.

All good druggists keep a supply of Lito-Phosphate. Try it if you are not feeling up to good form.—Adv.

APACHE INDIANS

HERE is sad news: The 2500 Apache Indians of the Fort Apache Reservation in Arizona are going to quit their wigwams and live in what a government bulletin describes as "modern homes."

A sawmill has been started on the reservation and already 100,000 feet of lumber has been cut. The Apaches will use this lumber for building their cottages.

The Apaches also are described as having been won over to the white man's system of education. The young Apaches are going to school regularly and taking home their grade-cards to papa.

Meanwhile, in a corner, for the Apaches have been the most reluctant of all Indian tribes in adopting so-called civilization.

All this is progress, of course. Why do we call it "sad news"? Well, we're glad that the Apaches are being "advanced." But somehow we have clung to the idea that the Apaches represented the last survival of the romantic old prairie days. And, when we see them surrender to the system of time clocks and efficiency experts, we feel that one of our most important illusions is destroyed.

After all, the system we call "civilization" is a dull proposition. Maybe it's "efficient" and all that. But a man chained by this system likes to feel that there is romance and adventure and freedom from civilization somewhere.

Next thing we know, the Eskimos will be discarding their candle diet and adopting calories.

It's all a part of the system that is reaching to the far corners of the earth and making life cut-and-dried, drab and dull. The old-time salt water sailor of the frigate days is gone, and now the primitive Apache Indians follow him to seclusion.

Progress, all right, but many a man resents the passing of the few remaining outposts of romance.

"GLAD RAGS"

THE Sunday suit of clothes is one of the institutions that are vanishing in our generation. Years ago—and not so many, at that—it was a rare man who didn't have his "Sunday best" stored away for use only on the Sabbath or special occasions, such as going to a church social or "Floradora."

The idea was to wear the new suit only "for good." It got into everyday use when the regular week-day suit fell to pieces.

People weren't as particular, in former days, about what they wore Monday to Saturday. At least, that was true of the men. Patches and mends were nothing to be ashamed of. They reflected the economy that was necessary in a period when money was so scarce that the residence of a man making $250 a month was pointed out as a Town Wonder to visitors being driven past in a phaeton.

There used to be a song in those times, "Every Day'll Be Sunday By-and-by." That goal has been reached, in the matter of men's clothes. Even the overall brigade is apt to wear the same suit week-day evenings as on Sunday.

The Sunday suit meant most to the boy in knee trousers, for with it the clothier "threw in" a pair of suspenders and a premium like a Brownie camera or a small alarm clock masquerading as a watch.

Since the Sunday suit was destined not to see week-day service for six months or more, father always bought it several sizes too big—a 16-year old for a 12-year old boy was the rule.

The glory of the new raiment was somewhat dimmed by the constant fear of ripping the seat of the trousers or making connections with grease spots.

We'd like to turn the clock back and get something that'd wear like one of the old-time Sunday suits. Yes, we'd even toil a couple of hours again with m'a' iron, making trousers creases that would out a dog in two. For we've lost, not only the Sunday suit, but a lot that went with it socially.

ATHLETICS LENGTHEN LIFE

ATHLETES live much longer than other people, according to an insurance company's checkup of Harvard stars who "won their letters" 25 or more years ago.

Physical exercise, fresh air and proper diet are the keys to long life. They can be overdone. The one exception in Harvard athletics was football, whose players die at almost exactly the same average age as the average American. Probably over-exertion counteracts their original advantage—super-strong bodies. Baseball players live longer than any other athletes.

THE IRON RATION

The noted nutrition authority, Van Noorden, a strong advocate of liberal use of meat in the adult diet, teaches a different policy in the nutrition of the child. He writes: "The necessity of a generous supply of vegetables and fruits must be particularly emphasized. They are of the greatest importance for the normal development of the body and of all its functions. As far as children are concerned we believe we could do better by following the dietary of the most rigid vegetarians than by feeding the children as they are fed by carnivores, according to the old custom which is still quite prevalent. If we limit the most important sources of iron—the vegetables and the fruits—we cause a certain sluggishness of blood formation and an entire lack of reserve iron, such as is normally found in the liver, spleen and bone marrow of healthy, well-nourished individuals."

As a matter of fact, any one of the following items, taken ounce for ounce or pound for pound, furnishes more iron to the body than does lean beef or any other meat. Entire wheat, almonds, egg yolk, oatmeal, dried beans, green peas or dried peas, prunes, spinach. Other foods which, if not as rich in iron as those named, are of nearly the same value practically in the diet, are: String beans, lettuce, apples, figs, pineapples, strawberries, blackberries, walnuts, cocoanuts, oranges, bananas, potatoes, carrots, beets, host greens, asparagus, onions, pumpkin pie, tomatoes, celery, rhubarb, endives, kohlrabi, mushrooms, lentils and artichokes. Nearly anything green and edible contains food iron.

And it is more reasonable, too, don't you think, to look in the garden, the cellar or the grocery for something good for the blood than it is to seek for the elusive "tonic."

THE ROAD TO MEMORY

This is the road to memory. And the road to ripe old age. These are the pictures that we shall see.

At last on a glistening page: These are the joys which will come again.

When the fire is burning low, The scenes of laughter, the hours of pain.

And the lad which now we know.

We shall see him then as we see him now.

The boy with his book unread, His pleading face and his furrowed brow.

As we order him up to bed: We shall see his cap on the parlor chair.

And his thumb prints on the wall, We shall see the day when he pressed them there.

And oh, we shall cherish it all!

Mischievous, troublesome, careless lad, Plugging us till we could.

But oh, we shall never think him bad.

In the days when we grow old, The years may carry him far away.

But still we shall see him there, The little boy that he is today.

Cuddled up in that great arm chair.

Not now, not now can we understand The joy of these common days.

We see but the print of his smudgy hand.

And the care of his heedless ways, But this is the road to memory.

And some day we'll recall The glorious, golden past when he lived here as a youngster small.

THIS LITTLE WORLD

WASHINGTON

(By HARRY B. HUNT)

WASHINGTON (Special) —

Washington's first touch of real winter, when the mercury dropped close to zero, caused Mrs. Grace Coolidge, who leads a sheltered life in the White House, to chafe at the restraints traditionally surrounding the nation's "first lady."

The sun shone brightly, but the stiff wind out of the northwest put a sting and snap into the air that must have savored of the invigorating zephyrs of New England. The lure was too much.

Mrs. Coolidge, accompanied only by her two sons, went for a Sunday afternoon hike thru downtown Washington. Probably few of the hardy pedestrians who braved the cold recognized her. But those who did could not fail to have noted her evident enjoyment.

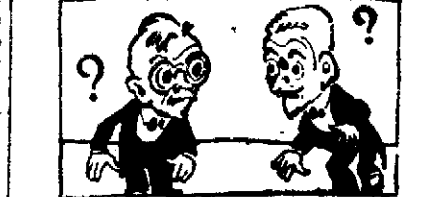

At least for the period of that walk, Mrs. Coolidge was only a native New Englander, getting a sniff of bracing wintry air.

When Representative John Philip Hill of Baltimore, who proposes the repeal of the Volstead law, appeared before Congress the other day to answer the demand of Upshaw of ever. For in the box across the pit from where the Coolidge family sat was Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, resplendent in cloth or silk, and in the orchestra, between the two, the round, smiling physiognomy of the Chief Justice, former President Taft.

The best smile official Washington has had in a blue moon was occasioned by the loudly whispered explanation of a young sightseer to the girl on his arm—evidently his bride—as they watched the carriages rolling up to the White House portico with guests to the diplomatic reception.

As dignified, gray-whiskered, plug-batted Henry Cabot Lodge drove up the young man grew quite excited. "Look, dear, look!" he exclaimed. "There goes General Sawyer."

CRIME COMMITTED NOT PROVED

Freedom of Confessed Slayer of
Two Persons Looms

BODIES CREMATED HE SAYS

"Now I Can Sleep" He Says as
He Coolly Tells Story

AURORA, Ill. — (Special)—With confession of murder on his lips, Warren J. Lincoln, come back as from the dead to astound a nation with his weird story of killing and destruction, may yet, by the slender thread of legal technicality, be acquitted of all guilt.

Despite his admission that he is a slayer, despite the evidence supporting his statements, the ponderous machinery of the law may find itself hopelessly baffled when it tries to convict him of a crime he freely admits.

BODY NOT PRODUCED

Corpus delicti—legal phrase for "the body dead by unlawful means"—must be established before there is, legally, a murder. The law won't take a man's own word that he snuffed out the life of a fellow man.

According to Lincoln's story is true, he slew his wife a year ago with a sawed-off gun after she had shot her brother, and then he coolly dismembered both bodies with a hacksaw and cremated them in his green-house furnace. The authorities go farther and charge him with murdering the two of them.

But the bodies have not been produced—the corpus delicti has not been established—and upon that fact many here are basing their belief that Lincoln never will pay the penalty of murder.

Nothing but wonder comes from trying to fathom the mental processes of a man who would do the things Lincoln says he has done and still remain serene after admission.

Now I can sleep nights," he says.

And there's a smile on his lips as he sleeps in the jail cell—this enigmatic, baldheaded ex-lawyer and florist of 45, who claims to be a distant cousin of Abraham Lincoln.

WHY DOES HE SMILE?

What is the meaning of his smile? Is it mere relief at shuffling off a load of guilt and dread? Or is it the smile of his subconscious legal mind still at work, chuckling at the tangle of traditional law which may provide a defense instead of punishment?

The Lincoln case is strangely reminiscent of an astounding parallel—the Eulo case in Chicago. Michael Eulo, self-confessed slayer of Samuel Sperling, got off scot free, altho he says he shot Sperling because of attentions to his wife. Furthermore, there were witnesses who swore they saw Eulo kill Sperling.

But suddenly in the legal proceedings there was an objection by the defense and a ruling from the court. The state had not shown that the man mentioned in the indictment had been killed. Was there one present who could say of his perfect and personal knowledge that the dead man was Sperling and none other?

BOTH DISAPPEAR

There was not. Eulo's wife had disappeared. So had Sperling's brother. And Eulo was acquitted.

Does Lincoln reflect in his cell that the legal posturing in a murder trial are all vain and useless until the first and fundamental step in a murder prosecution has been taken? Does his legal knowledge assure him that the corpus delicti will never be established?

Maybe. But notwithstanding the apparent legal security of his position, he himself has had little mind to smile.

Assuming again the truth of his story, there is revealed a fugitive from an indwelling terror. But for that haunting desire to tell his secret, to be assured that he was safe, he might today be planting a new garden in the sunshine of some distant state.

Over-elaborate plans to build up his alibi made him suspected.

FAKES HIS DENISE

He got out of sight, first making his cottage gressome with splashed chicken's blood and torn linen in an effort to make himself believed dead at the hands of Shoup and Mrs. Lincoln.

But he couldn't stay away. Last summer he returned with a yarn about kidnapping and bondage under a dope ring, and in the fall he fled again.

Meanwhile, he kept providing explanations for the disappearance of his wife and Shoup. He wrote letter after letter to his wife's family.

using his own green-ribboned type-writer, and signed her name to them. When he was at length arrested he blurted out his statement before anyone suggested the missing pair to him.

In his confession, with all its gaudy background of incredible conduct and unproved assertion, his shrewd lawyer mind undoubtedly shaped his case for self-defense.

PAY HELD UP

Pay in the safety department was held up Wednesday when City Clerk Frank Hume returned the payrolls to department heads for correction. Totals for each department were not compiled and the payrolls were returned to Police Chief T. A. Lanker and Fire Chief John Mack with instructions to complete and return before pay checks are issued.

DON'T BLOCK ALLEYS

Warning against blocking alleys between streets was issued Thursday by Chief Lanker. He found at least two closed Wednesday afternoon by motorists who left their cars in them. Arrests are liable to follow a violation of the ordinance which prohibits the blocking of alleys in this manner, he declared.

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes
Trouble Almost Overnight

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings relief from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowie's Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Adv.

Mothers!! Apply Common Sense

THIS is the era of the prevention of disease and sensible people do not wait until sickness has actually come before remedying the trouble. The crowded hospitals everywhere are sad examples of the results of neglect. Be especially watchful of children. Restlessness, lack of normal appetite and feverishness usually indicate constipation. Stop it that instant with a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and you will have prevented real sickness. Mrs. Ida Williamson of 1637 Pine St., Long Beach, Cal. and Mrs. Lou Brawley of Self, Ark., never have illness in the family because of their prompt use of Syrup Pepsin.

A Great Family Laxative

It may be difficult to decide just what medicine to use out of the many that are offered, but it would not be if you knew the facts. There are laxatives, cathartics, purgatives and physics, and they vary in their reaction on the system. Naturally, the stronger the medicine the more it shocks the system, so wise parents never give anything but a laxative to children. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild laxative, a vegetable compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and desirable aromatics, and so appreciated that it is now the largest selling preparation of its kind in the world, over 10 million bottles being used annually. The formula is on every package.

Three Rules of Health

Purchase a bottle of Syrup Pepsin at a drug store and always keep one in the family medicine chest. Give it to anyone from infant to grandparent, for it is safe, and the cost is less than a cent a dose. You can keep a family healthy with just this simple medicine. Give it for constipation, torpid liver, indigestion, biliousness, headaches, colds and other evidence of bowel obstruction. Dr. Caldwell, who was a practicing physician for 47 years, and who originated this formula, had three rules of health that he found very effective among his patients and which you can follow with great benefit: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, and the bowels open.

Upset Condition.

Every drop of water used here passes through a filter where poisonous waste matter is eliminated and the water is made pure. People would soon protest if City officials allowed this filter to get clogged up so that it could no longer purify water which flows into your home. Yet, people never stop to think that there is a filter in the body that is just as important to you as the one that purifies the city water supply.

Why You Feel Badly

This filter is your liver. When working as Nature intended it purifies your blood, every drop of which filters through your liver every 12 minutes. It also supplies the secretions that are essential to digestion and nourishment and prevents constipation. But, when this filter becomes clogged up with poisonous wastes, it cannot do these three things. Consequently you often wake up feeling dull, nervous and tired. Your system is slowly poisoned and you suffer from such symptoms as sour stomach, belching of gas, improper movement of the bowels, lack of energy, and a nervous, upset condition. You catch cold, flu, and your system is too run down to throw off these troubles. You continue to feel badly until your filter has been properly cleaned and

(BY CADIE)

THE Sistine Chapel choir, from the Sistine chapel, Rome, gave its second concert of the season at the Faurot opera house Wednesday evening. It was the same wonderful singing organization as on its first visit, embracing many superb voices, equal in every respect to those we are wont to go into ecstasies over; voices that would fit into the most prominent opera organizations, all under the skillful leadership of Monsignor Antonio Rella. It stood up to its high reputation; to what had been said of it, claimed for it, by eminent musical critics. The audience was delighted. Choral singing such as this was perhaps never heard in Lima or even in the United States before.

Robert Mantell, supported by Genevieve Hamper, and a most competent company of Shakespearean actors will be seen in a production of "The Merchant of Venice" at the Faurot Friday evening. It is quite certain that students of the immortal bard, are taking advantage of this occasion, for the advance sale indicates a capacity audience. Orders are being received from the faculties of the different educational institutions adjacent to Lima in every direction. It must not be forgotten in these times when Shakespearean revivals have been the fashion to a considerable extent, that there is a great deal more interest than ordinarily. Mantell is supposed as Shylock; perhaps the greatest artist in the part living, so there is a double incentive in seeing him. It is to be regretted that he is unable to play but one night in Lima.

A most pleasurable event for Lima theatergoers, will be a return engagement of De Wolf Hopper and his excellent comic opera organization in Pinafore, at the Faurot, next Tuesday evening. Mr. Hopper is undoubtedly the greatest favorite in the part of Dick Deadeye, the part which he will play here, that the American stage has known. He is at his best in this part, because it is one of his favorite characters; he likes it, as well as the public like him in the character.

URGES THRIFT EVERY WEEK. COLUMBUS.—Governor Donahy advocated making every week "thrift week", in a statement issued today, calling for the observance of national thrift week January 17-23. The governor endorsed home owning as a means of saving.

Request to City Manager C. A. Bingham for a copy of the city license code was received at city hall Thursday morning from the municipal reference library at Chicago to be placed on file for information of citizens desiring information on license laws.

COPY OF THE revised license law adopted here several months ago will be sent in response to the request which is made only on cities operating with up to date license laws according to City Manager Bingham.

OVERCOAT STOLEN, OWNER IN FLORIDA BUT WANTS IT. One doesn't often think of overcoats as connected with the alleged halcyon climes of Florida, but when J. Sands, 714 S. Main-st., reached Florida the other day after a trip down by automobile, he found his was gone. He packed it into the rear of the car while it was standing near High-st market, Jan. 8. Some one else unpacked it. Now he finds it. Someone else has it. He filed the report, but expressed a doubt as to their ability to recover at this late date.

FREIGHT CLASSIFICATION REVISION SEEN AS LINK RETURNS FROM MEETING

Board of Commerce Traffic Manager John Link returned to his desk Thursday morning from the interstate freight classification conference at Chicago, at which he presented facts asking for revision of shipping conditions in Lima.

While no decision has been given by the commission the opinion gained by Manager Link is one of optimism and he expects his trip will bring revised freight classification to Lima shippers which will mean reduced rates and bettered shipping facilities on all railroads.

"The commission listened to our arguments," Link said, "and from remarks at the hearing we have reasons to believe that some good will develop from our trip."

No date for the decision has been announced. Similar hearings are being held in New York and Atlanta, Ga., and probably exists that reports will not be submitted until those hearings are over.

D. W. Hubbard, representative of Piqua Shippers' association and also interested in the local Board of commerce traffic department, remained in Chicago and upon his return he may bring information revealing the report of the commission.

NEW!

"A Woman of Paris" can be seen ten times and something NEW found every time. Charles Chaplin has put a story on the screen with the vigorous style and effective workmanship with which de Maupassant might have put the same story on paper.
—JOSEPH H. MULLANEY, N. Y. AMERICAN.

RARE!

"Rare dramatic effect—big, gripping, human stories of life—holds the interest and quickens the heart. It is a most interesting motion picture. IT IS THE CINEMA'S REAL HOPE."
—QUINN MARTIN, N. Y. WORLD.

INTERESTING!

"The interesting and pleasing touches in the various scenes are like simple words used by an author to give spark and life to his story. This film lives, and the more directors emulate Mr. Chaplin, the better will it be for the producing of pictures."
—F. W. MORDAUNT HALL, TIMES.

MARVELOUS!

"A Woman of Paris" is marvelous—well, that's not half enough to say about it. Without a moment's hesitation we declare "A Woman of Paris" the finest piece of filmery of the year."

NEW YORK (Associated Press)

Stock prices displayed a firm tone at the opening of today's market, buying orders being widely distributed. A fractional gain was registered in the fractional gains were registered by low priced rails, oils, steel, equipments and foods. Pan-American issues were again under pressure, yielding fractionally on minor sales.

Prices rose steadily through the early dealings. Westinghouse Air Brake advancing three points and American Sugar Refining, General Asphalt, Gloss-Sheffield, Crucible, Republic, U. S. Cast Iron Pipe, Lima Locomotive, Davison Chemical, Dupont, Savage Arms and South Porto Rico Sugar moving up 1 to nearly 2-1/2 points. Southern Railway touched 3-1/2, a record price. The Pan-American issues extended their losses to more than a point each.

Foreign exchange opened steady. French francs improving slightly in reflection of a further increase in the Bank of France rediscount rate. Demand bills selling above 4.70 cent.

Enthusiastic buying of the steel group which carried up U. S. Steel 5-1/8 to 101-5/8 and established advances of 1 to 2 points in the other members of the group was the outstanding incident of the forenoon dealings. While buying elsewhere resulted in many substantial advances, the market was not without its soft spots, the Pan-Americans being fed out steadily and Utah Copper, Studebaker, Pacific Oil and Wills-Overland showing intervals of heaviness. Railroad shares were less active and moved narrowly, with, however, consistent buying of some of the non-dividend paying stocks. Fisher Body jumped 3-1/4 and American Wholesale preferred five points. Call money opened at 4-1/4 per cent and soon dropped to 4.

LULL HITS CITY'S BUILDING

Permits for First 15 Days of Month Total $12,605

Decreased building activities at the start of 1924 is shown in the semi-monthly report of building permits issued at the office of City Manager Bingham. During the first 15 days of the month only nine permits were taken out for construction work aggregating $12,605.

Five of the permits were for homes, two for erection of remodeling of dwellings and three for remodeling of homes. Three licenses called for erection of garages and one for construction of a $5,000 business establishment.

Intense cold during the second week of the new year interrupted construction work but during the past few days a slight increase has been indicated and an optimistic belief is prevalent for increased building activities.

EIGHT AUTOS BURN

Transmission Grease Explodes. Sets Fire to Garage

Fire from an explosion of transmission grease, a large container of which had been placed on a furnace and filled with water, completely destroyed the garage of J. W. Harp, 214 W. Vine-st and eight automobiles with it at noon Thursday. All were a total loss.

Harp placed the container of grease on his furnace to boil the water from it. He was working on a car, and when he looked up he found the grease boiling over on the furnace. As he started to remove it, the can exploded, hurling the burning fluid all over the garage and over him.

He rushed outside where he extinguished the blaze in his own clothing, and notified the fire department. Four barrels of oil added fuel to the intensity of the flames, making firemen's work very hard.

One car, an Earl Sport model, was the property of the Franklin Flinn Co., a Studebaker roadster, belonged to E. K. Kline. Celina, and the other six, a Chalmers, Willys-Kutzig, Overland, Briscoe and Reo, were Harp's.

The building, which was built last October and insured at $1,000, was a total loss. He had $1,000 in insurance on the cars and the same on the building. Fixtures and stock valued at $1,866 and tools at $300 were destroyed. Loss was $6,000, was said.

EXAMINATIONS HELD HERE FOR HIGHWAY POSITIONS

Four men took examination for assistant engineer; seven for laborer in charge and 11 for highway superintendent.

Friday examinations will be given to applicants for state highway engineers. O. M. Bailey, Columbus, state examiner is in charge.
